STATE AFFAIRS
WISPOLITICS
Wisconsin's Premier Political News Service

Dane County Dept. of Emergency Management: Three shelters opening for Dane County flood victims

Posted on Tuesday, Aug 21, 2018

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: Josh Wescott
608-267-1591
wescott@countyofdane.com

1:45 PM Flooding Update – Dane County Emergency Management

To assist flood victims, the American Red Cross and Salvation Army will be opening three shelters in western Dane County beginning at 4 p.m.

The shelters are:

Glacier Creek Middle School in Cross Plains

Mazomanie Elementary School in Mazomanie

Madison West High School in Madison

The Salvation Army will be serving an evening meal at Glacier Creek in Cross Plains and Mazomanie Elementary in Mazomanie. The Red Cross will be serving a meal at Madison West.

Dane County is under a state of emergency following last night's record rains and ongoing flooding affecting Dane County.

Private property owners with damage are being asked to call 2-1-1.

Businesses that have experienced flood damage are encouraged to contact their local unit of government to document those losses in preparation of a possible disaster assistance application.