Franklin, WI. – Remarks made earlier today by North Carolina Senator Thom Tillis are a poor reflection on the people of North Carolina. Senator Tillis blamed Hispanics for their high rates of COVID-19. Being a senator from a state with numerous slaughterhouses, Senator Tillis should be fighting for the essential workers in his state, who are working in unsafe conditions at mega meat processing plants. As such Forward Latino is inviting North Carolina Senator Thom Tillis to respond to the CDC findings it will review this evening on COVID-19 infections and deaths at meat and poultry processing plants.
