

*You are Cordially Invited to Attend
A Special Presentation Concerning the*

Kenosha - Racine - Milwaukee (KRM)
Corridor Transit Service Options:
An Investigation and Analysis

What: To aid public policy decision-making, the Reason Foundation* commissioned a study to help determine the types of improvements to transit service that would best serve the KRM corridor. A presentation by the author of that study will discuss regional public transportation improvement alternatives; their costs and effectiveness. A question and answer period will follow the presentation. The full study may be viewed at: <http://www.reason.org/ps372.pdf>

Who: The study's author, Mr. Thomas A. Rubin, has over thirty years of public transit experience as a senior executive in major transit agencies and as a consultant specializing in long-term transit capital/operations/financial planning. He is founder and director of the transit industry practice of Deloitte and Touche, LLP and formally served as chief financial officer of the Southern California Rapid Transit District in Los Angeles and the Alameda - Contra Costa Transit District in Oakland.

When: Friday, January 16, 2009 - 10:00 - 11:00 AM

Where: Milwaukee County Courthouse, Room 203P
901 N. Ninth Street, Milwaukee, WI 53233

Please contact stefan.dostanic@milwcnty.com (414.276.4795) with any questions.

###

 Reason Foundation is a nonpartisan public policy research think-tank that promotes choice, competition, and a dynamic market economy as the foundation for human dignity and progress. Reason produces rigorous, peer-reviewed research and directly engages the policy process, seeking strategies that emphasize cooperation, flexibility, local knowledge, and results. The foundation is completely supported by voluntary contributions from individuals, foundations, and corporations.*