Milwaukee – Senator Herb Kohl launched www.HerbKohl.com, his reelection campaign’s website, last week. In an email to supporters announcing the launching, he said, “As I seek a fourth term representing Wisconsin in the United States Senate, www.HerbKohl.com will provide voters across the state with the opportunity to learn more about the issues facing our communities and our country, as well as my plans for the future. HerbKohl.com will truly serve as an online headquarters and allow voters from across Wisconsin to connect with the campaign.”

The main features of the website include a volunteer sign-up page through which supporters can join Senator Kohl’s reelection campaign, a “Stories and Quotes” page that allows people to submit a personal story about Senator Kohl that may later be featured on the website, issue updates, a short biography, and a photo gallery.

The website will continue to be updated with additional features and information as Senator Kohl’s campaign for a fourth term proceeds.

Since announcing the website’s creation last Wednesday, thousands of Wisconsinites have visited the site, and over 500 new volunteers have signed up to assist with Senator Kohl’s reelection efforts.
