Statement from Justice Annette Ziegler on Supreme Court Action

MADISON – In response to the Wisconsin Supreme Court’s decision related to the Judicial Commission review that was initiated in March of 2007, Justice Annette Ziegler released the following statement:

“I am pleased the Supreme Court, the Judicial Conduct Panel and the Wisconsin Judicial Commission have all now confirmed that the mistake I made was inadvertent, that neither myself, nor anyone in my family benefited financially from my participation in the cases and the cases were decided as they would have been decided by any other judge.

“I appreciate that this matter is now concluded. I look forward to continuing to serve the people of Wisconsin.”
