1.	Madison.com Capitol Newspapers	01/21/06	Life after a conviction is called lobbying
2.	Wisconsin State Journal Online Edition 	01/16/06	Opinion: Cartoon Depicts lawmakers are puppets of lobbyists.
3.	Wisconsin State Journal	01/15/06	Wispolitics.com Stock Report: Ups And Downs In Wisconsin Politics “The Dane County district attorney notches another Capitol corruption win with Friday's plea by Steve Foti . . . His sights are next set on former GOP Assembly Speaker Scott Jensen, the last of five lawmakers who were charged more than three years ago; Foti's plea makes four guilty pleas thus far . . . Blanchard will be under pressure to secure a guilty plea to a felony or a trial conviction. Blanchard also scores points with campaign reformers and Dane County constituents by forcing the issue of whether former Democratic state Sen. Brian Burke, D-Milwaukee, should serve time in jail instead of at home.”
4.	Milwaukee Journal Sentinel	01/15/06	Capitol scandal down to last lawmaker: Foti guilty of misdemeanor; Jensen case ahead
5.	Wisconsin State Journal Online Edition	01/14/06	Opinion: Good guy argument doesn't fly. “But go back and read the details of the charges these guys are pleading guilty to, and it's clear they knew exactly what they were doing - wasting the public's money on self-serving schemes to stay in power.” “ Schultz would brag about how much money she raised . . . Foti and the rest of his staff knew what Schultz was doing with her time . . . Multiple state employees said Schultz never did any legitimate work for taxpayers . . . Schultz would track campaign money, file necessary reports and create ‘call sheets’ of donors . . .Schultz was ‘constantly talking with lobbyists regarding campaign contributions’ . . . After Wisconsin State Journal reporters Dee J. Hall and Phil Brinkman broke the caucus scandal in 2001, Schultz locked and ‘cleaned’ her state office of campaign materials and eventually moved to a private Republican Party of Wisconsin office.”

6.	Madison.com	01/13/06	Foti Pleads Guilty to Misdemeanor “Jensen, the only lawmaker charged in the scandal still in the Legislature, is scheduled to go on trial Feb. 21 on three felonies and a misdemeanor that he used state workers to campaign for Republicans. Schultz, who was hired by Foti to raise funds for Assembly Republicans, will be tried alongside Jensen on a single felony count ”
7.	The Capital Times	01/13/06	Opinion: McCabe sees tipping point on horizon in state politics McCabe explains that people suddenly paying attention to corruption in the capitol because of the “ parade of lawmakers into courtrooms ” getting convicted.
8.	The Xoff Files Wisopinion.com	01/13/06	Foti: If I only had known it was illegal . . . Characterizes Foti’s defense (that he did not recognize the illegality of his actions) as being incredulous. Predicts Jensen’s defense will be the same. Opines, “Burke and Chvala rationalizations weren’t any better.”
9.	WMTV 15 Madison nbc15.madison.com	01/13/06	Foti Reaches Deal in Caucus Scandal Foti agrees to testify against Schultz and Jensen.
10.	WKOW TV 27 Madison wkowtv.com	01/13/06	Another Plea Deal in Caucus Scandal Foti agrees to testify against Schultz and Jensen.

12.	Wisconsin State Journal	01/12/06	Opinion: Foti to enter plea in deal “Steve Foti . . . is expected to become the fourth Wisconsin lawmaker convicted in the legislative caucus scandal . . . Last month, Ladwig pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor, leaving only the cases against Schultz and Jensen . . . ”
13.	Wisconsin State Journal	01/08/06	Opinion: Surprise! Burke gets off easy

			“I think those others need to know, need to hear, that it’s a jail-kind of message,” Foust said.
14.	Wisconsin State Journal Online Edition talk.madison.com	01/05/06 (Forum started 12/14/05)	Online Discussion Forum: Chvala should pay back every penny. “If we want to control our politicians actions while in office working for us we need to send a strong message. . . . Lets prosecute them to the fullest extent of the law!!!” “Chvala should be hung by his testicles on the “Capitol Square. All you ‘Chuck’ sympathizers can then claim he is your God and you can have another religious holiday in memory if his ‘persecution.’” “I guess we cannot hang Ladwig by her testicles either can we?, but the rest of the accused seem to now have an incentive to drag out the caucus scandal . . . 3 down, 3 to go.”
15.	Wisconsin State Journal Online Edition 	01/01/06	Opinion: Cartoon Chvala portrayed by the Christmas tree, opening a present marked “To: Chuck, From: Wisconsin.” The present - a black and white striped jail shirt with his name on it. Chvala comments, “Really, you shouldn’t have.”
16.	Wisconsin State Journal	01/01/06	Opinion: An Agenda for 2006: Purify State Politics The Wisconsin State Journal’s editorial board declares the caucus scandal to be among the most important issues facing Wisconsin in 2006. Jensen, and Foti are portrayed as guilty by association with Burke, Chvala, and co-defendant Ladwig’s guilty pleas. “Tying all of these cases together is an insatiable thirst for campaign dollars. . . Jensen and Foti are still fighting their charges . . . They all deserve to be punished.” (emphasis added.)
17.	The Capital Times	12/30/05	Opinion: Cartoon “The Campaign Finance Sewer” Jensen and Foti as rats in a sewer talking about co-defendant Ladwig. Foti asks Jensen “Do you think she’s [Ladwig] gonna rat us out?”
18.	Wisconsin State Journal	12/29/05	Accept no lapses in Capitol ethics Conduct of UW-Madison lobbyist Don Nelson compared to Capitol scandals involving election law violations and misconduct in public office. “If you have to play dumb about what is and what is not ethical behavior in government, maybe you are too dumb for public service.”

19.	WKOW TV 27 Madison wkowtv.com	12/28/05	Third Lawmaker Convicted in Caucus Scandal Ladwig “agrees to ‘cooperate’ in the investigation and prosecution of the remaining defendants in the caucus scandal , which include fellow Republicans Scott Jensen , Steve Foti and Foti’s aide Sherry Schultz .”
20.	The Capital Times	12/28/05	Opinion: Political corruptions seems here to stay As long as their [politicians] pockets are lined by business interests, the fundamental system will not change. So get used to corruption in office . . . because it’s here to stay.”
21.	Wisconsin State Journal	12/21/05	Opinion: Cartoon - Business As Usual Burke, Chvala, Jensen, Foti, Ladwig, Schultz all connected in a string of dominos (which spell out “Business as usual”) that begin to fall with Burke and Chvala’s pieces toppling over first.
22.	Wisconsin State Journal Article no longer available online.	12/19/05	Chvala sentence a slap on the wrist Criticism that jail sentence is too light for Chvala because it does not deter others from committing the same crime.
23.	Wisconsin State Journal	12/18/05	Songs of passion, corruption and speeding tickets Satirical songs presented as gifts for the holidays. Songs include “I Copped a Plea” with impersonations of Burke to the tune of Johnny Cash’s “I walk the Line.”
24.	Channel 3000 Wisctv.com	12/16/05	Chvala Sentenced To Jail, Probation More Trials For Lawmakers Are Ahead “Other legislative figures are set for trial early next year on charges resulting from the same investigation .”
25.	Talk.Madison.com Forum: Headlines http://www.madison.com/post/forum/viewtopic.php?t=6980	12/10/2005 thru 12/16/2005	Online Discussion Forum: Chvala is a criminal . Comments from several readers reveal negative attitudes against the accused and all those associated with the caucus scandal
26.	The Capital Times Web Edition	12/15/05	Public wanted jail for Chvala: Letters to judge go 18-7 negative The article reports that “the judge also received a large batch of unsolicited letters from members of the public who weighed in heavily on the side of sending the veteran politician to jail, with many of them saying that is the only way to clean up what is seen as pervasive corruption in the State Capitol. ”

27.	The Capital Times Web Edition http://www.madison.com/post/forum/viewtopic.php?t=6531.	(Forum no longer active)	Discussion Forum on article: Jail time is a mystery for Burke. “I think that Jensen and Chvala both got off really light and I am sure Burke will be the same. But I think all of them should have to spend more than a few months in jail. This just sends a message to our governing bodies that it's okay to screw the public and get away with it. All those people make me sick to my stomach! And the message to others that justice has a price if you can afford it. I think they should face at least 2-5 years in medium security prison!
