MADISON, Wis. – Attorney General Brad Schimel issued the following statement after Governor Walker released his 2017-19 Executive Budget today.

At the Wisconsin Department of Justice, we're grateful for Governor Walker's support of our public safety mission. It's no coincidence the Governor enjoys the support of the law enforcement community throughout the State, and his proposed budget for DOJ is a continued sign of his commitment to public safety. I look forward to working with the Legislature moving toward passage and final adoption.
