MADISON, WI – Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin today announced a seven-figure investment in television advertisements encouraging Wisconsinites to contact U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin and urge her to support the “Big Six” unified tax reform framework unveiled last week. The ads will run on local and cable networks throughout the state for three weeks beginning this Friday.

Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin State Director Eric Bott made the following statement:

“Hard-working Wisconsinites are reminded with each and every paycheck that our tax system is fundamentally rigged against them. Tammy Baldwin knows full well the tax code is broken but in 16 years in Washington she has done virtually nothing to fix it. With the framework that was unveiled last week, Congress has a once-in-a-generation opportunity to pass tax reform that is pro-growth and puts more money back in the pockets of Wisconsinites. AFP-WI’s base of over 130,000 grassroots activists stands ready to make sure that Tammy Baldwin does not stand in the way of this historic opportunity to unrig our economy.”

People are sick of politics.

I am too. But fixing our broken tax system isn't about politics – it's about helping people.

It means the powerful, the well-connected, politicians — they'll stop benefiting from a rigged system.

It means everyday Americans will have more to spend on what's important to them.

That's what tax reform will do. So, what's stopping us?
