

AP calls superintendent race for Evers

Posted on Wednesday, Apr 5, 2017

The Associated Press is projecting incumbent State Superintendent Tony Evers will win re-election over challenger Lowell Holtz.

The AP called it just 27 minutes after polls closed in the only contested statewide race on the spring ballot.

Check back in at WisPolitics.com to see more results and updates.