In case you were wondering, Children's/Peggy continues to not support the bills the Senate may vote on this week:

“Children's Hospital of Wisconsin continues to oppose the repeal and replace health care reform options currently under consideration by the Senate. We remain very concerned that the proposed cuts to funding risk undermining the Medicaid program, which could force states, including Wisconsin, to roll back coverage and benefits for children and families. We urge the Senate to work with stakeholders to ensure any bill does not negatively impact kids.”
