Madison-On March 28, 2017, LRB 2039/1 was introduced to the Wisconsin State Legislature. This "Right to Carry" bill would allow for the concealed carry of a firearm without a concealed carry license anywhere in the state where an individual is legally allowed to carry a firearm.

Given the complete lack of leadership that the Republicans have in Wisconsin regarding all things relating to the US Constitution, it is very unlikely that this bill will become law. In fact, the Constitution Party of Wisconsin (CPoW) has decided not to say "I told you so." Rather, CPoW has chosen to predict, as of this date, that the Republicans are so pathetic and weak, that they will definitely not have enough votes in their own party to pass the Right to Carry bill. The fact that they control the Wisconsin State Assembly, Senate and Governor's Office will not deter them from snatching defeat out of the jaws of victory.

"This ought to be a no-brainer," said CPoW State Chairman, Andrew Zuelke. "US Citizens have a God-given, unalienable right to keep and bear arms, as outlined in the 2nd Amendment of our constitution. Law-abiding citizens do not need permission from their government to exercise this right. Why is that so difficult for the Republicans to understand?"

The position of the Constitution Party is clear: The Constitution Party upholds the right of the citizen to keep and bear arms. We oppose attempts to prohibit ownership of guns by law-abiding citizens, and stand against all laws which would require the registration of guns or ammunition.

The Constitution Party has been a leader on this issue since its inception in 1992. While the democrats blatantly try to strip law abiding citizens of their right to keep and bear arms, the Republicans continue to do what they do best; cave-in to the democrats.

“Once again we [the Constitution Party] have proven to be the only conservative party left in Wisconsin,” said Jerry Broitzman, CPoW Vice Chairman. “The Republican Party has gone the way of the Whigs. We are the only political party who can oppose the democrats.”
