

Dane County Executive Parisi Press Conference on New Equity initiative

Posted on Monday, Mar 20, 2017

MADISON- Today, County Executive Parisi and community partners will hold a press conference to highlight help available for preparing your taxes at the local UW Extension, a service offered free to Dane County Citizens. This year County Executive Parisi led an effort to reach out to neighborhoods in poverty to help more people apply for the tax credits they have earned. For a struggling family, a few thousand dollars can mean the difference between staying in their home next year or being homeless.

WHO: Dane County Executive Joe Parisi

WHEN: Monday March 20 at noon

WHERE: Richard Dilley Tax Center 2300 S. Park Street, Suite 101
