Madison — State Superintendent Tony Evers has doubled his cash on hand since his last report heading into the February 21st Spring Primary.

Later today, Evers will report raising $142,443 for the filing period of January 1st through February 6th, as well as cash on hand of $237,695.

The following is a statement from Campaign Manager, Amanda Brink:

“We continue to be pleased with the robust support we have received in 2017. Most of our funds came from hard-working Wisconsinites who donated $50 or $75 at a time. Tony is proud to be supported by parents, educators and community leaders across Wisconsin who share his dedication to kids and commitment to public education.”
