

Evers to face challenger Lowell Holtz in general, AP reports

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 22, 2017

State Superintendent Tony Evers will face off against Lowell Holtz in a general re-election bid for his post, according to the Associated Press.

Eliminated in today's primary was John Humphries, former Dodgeville administrator who also worked at DPI.

Evers gathered 69 percent of the vote, while Holtz has 23 percent and Humphries has 7 percent, according to unofficial election results from AP.

Evers released a statement on his victory, saying the "real winners tonight are Wisconsin's 860,000 public school kids."

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Check back for more updates.