John Chisholm, John La Fave Endorse Matt Flynn for Governor

Flynn Gains Significant Momentum with Support of Two Milwaukee County Officials

(Milwaukee) — Wisconsin gubernatorial candidate Matt Flynn today announced endorsements from Milwaukee County District Attorney John Chisholm and Milwaukee County Register of Deeds John La Fave.

“Matt Flynn is one of the smartest people I know,” said Chisholm. “I trust him to restore clean, honest government, which Wisconsinites expect.”

Chisholm is a career prosecutor and Army veteran who has served as District Attorney in Milwaukee since 2007. He has been an advocate for criminal justice reform and cracking down on political corruption.

“Matt Flynn has what it takes to grow wages, increase access to health care, protect our environment, improve public education, and restore good government in Wisconsin,” said La Fave. “I am proudly endorsing his campaign for governor.”

La Fave has served as Milwaukee County Register of Deeds since 2003. He also previously served in the Wisconsin State Assembly for ten years.

“I am honored to have the support of John Chisholm and John La Fave,” said Flynn. “I have been humbled by the outpouring of support I am receiving as I meet Wisconsinites all over the state.”

Flynn also began his gubernatorial campaign with endorsements from Glendale Mayor Bryan Kennedy and Milwaukee Alderman Nik Kovac.
