MADISON – Governor Scott Walker announced today he is seeking applicants for appointment to the Monroe County Circuit Court. The new appointee will replace outgoing Monroe County Circuit Court Judge J. David Rice, whose resignation is effective October 3, 2017. The new appointee, should he or she choose to run, would be up for election in April 2018.

To apply, please submit the following:

Cover Letter

Resume (not exceeding two pages)

Two Writing Samples

Judicial Application: found on Governor Walker's website www.walker.wi.gov. (Select "Menu" at the top right of the page, "Serve WI," "Service Applications," "District Attorney Application.")

Complete application materials should be submitted via email to the following: govjudicialappointments@wisconsin.gov

All application materials must be received no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, October 13, 2017. Following submission, you will receive an email confirming that we have received your application, and explaining the next steps in the process.

Potential applicants with questions about the process should email their questions to govjudicialappointments@wisconsin.gov. If you need to speak with someone immediately, you may contact Kate Wiedel at 608-266-1212.
