Madison - Governor Scott Walker announced today that he is seeking applicants for appointment as Marinette County District Attorney.

The new appointee will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Marinette County District Attorney Allen R. Brey, whose resignation is effective June 4, 2017. The new appointee will serve out the remainder of the unexpired term and will be up for election in November 2020.

Please submit the following:

Cover Letter

Short Resume

References (list of 3-4)

D.A. Application: found on Governor Walker's website www.walker.wi.gov. (Select "Contact" at the top of the page, "Apply to Serve Wisconsin," and then "District Attorney Application")

Resumes, cover letters, and applications must be received no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, May 5, 2017. Following submission, applicants will receive an email confirming we have received the application and describing the general process for the appointment.

Potential applicants with questions about the appointments process should email their questions to govdistrictattorney@wisconsin.gov. If you need to speak with someone immediately, you may contact Jennifer Roades at 608-266-1212.
