Madison, Wisconsin – Public tours of the Wisconsin Executive Residence and gardens begin tomorrow, June 15. Summer tours will be held every Thursday from 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. starting tomorrow and running through August 31.

“As summer begins, now is the perfect time to travel throughout Wisconsin and experience all our state has to offer, including the Wisconsin Executive Residence!” First Lady Tonette Walker said. “The Executive Residence truly is the people’s home, and we invite Wisconsinites and visitors to enjoy the beauty and history of the house and gardens this summer.”

Tours are free and cameras are allowed. Parties of 20 or more are asked to make a reservation by calling \(608\) 246-5501246-5501). Parking is available directly outside the residence gates. The Wisconsin Executive Residence is handicapped accessible and handicapped parking is available upon request at the time of arrival.

The Executive Residence is located at 99 Cambridge Road on Madison’s northeast side in the Village of Maple Bluff. To learn more about the Wisconsin Executive Residence, click here.
