Dan Kohl will spend the next year reminding Wisconsin workers and families about this vote.

Grafton - In response to Glenn Grothman's vote in support of the Republican tax bill that advanced in the House, former business executive and non-profit leader Dan Kohl issued the following statement:

"Glenn Grothman's party decided it was time to reward their wealthy donors and Glenn acquiesced. His party asked him to keep his criticism of the process muted and he did. Glenn Grothman had the opportunity to work for real tax reform benefiting Wisconsin workers and families but he chose to side with his party's donors instead. Next year, the people of Wisconsin's 6th District have the opportunity to let him know how they feel about this vote."
