The conclusions of the United States intelligence community make clear that Russia meddled in our election and attacked American democracy. In light of a string of developments in the story of Russian interference in the 2016 election, non-profit leader and business executive Dan Kohl calls on Glenn Grothman to support tougher Russian sanctions in the House.

“It’s time Glenn Grothman stood up to Russia. He may say no one’s talking about it, but he has a responsibility to stand up to any foreign nation that would interfere with our democracy. It’s time he used his platform as a member of Congress to demand Speaker Ryan bring the House Russian sanctions bill to a vote.”

“There is no excuse for delay. This bill passed the Senate 98-2 in a rare display of bipartisanship and urgency. The House refuses to act. It is time to place politics aside, to put country before party, and stand up to Vladimir Putin. Glenn Grothman, do your job, stand up for America and urge Speaker Ryan to bring this bill to a quick vote.”
