

McGabe campaign: Principle over Party campaign heads to Waukesha

Posted on Tuesday, Nov 21, 2017

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Media Contact:

Christine Welcher

Campaign Manager

Phone: 608-279-2733

Email address: christine@bluejeansgov.com

WAUKESHA, WI, NOVEMBER 21, 2017 – After 2 months and over 12,000 miles, Mike McCabe's Principle over Party campaign continues to make its way around the state. Tuesday night's Meet & Greet at Waukesha's Jack's Cafe (N4W22496 Bluemound Road, Waukesha, WI) is the latest stop. The Meet & Greet style event on November 21st, will begin at 6pm with a short speech from the candidate. The majority of the evening will be questions from the floor. The event is free to attend and all are welcome.

Mike's goal is to inspire and engage people from all over the state to get back into the driver's seat. Democracy is not a spectator sport. Mike's message continues to explain and educate why this campaign must be People Powered and Crowd Funded if it is to succeed.

"If money decides the election, the people will continue to be stuck with elected representatives who scratch the backs of those who scratched theirs, and our government will continue to be controlled by the wealthy and well-connected. Breaking free of this trap involves risk. It requires faith and the courage of conviction," he said. "Political insiders will call this unilateral disarmament. No, it's acting on principle. The insiders say you have to spend four or five hours a day begging rich people for money if you want to be taken seriously. That's exactly what has gotten us into the mess we're in."

McCabe continues, “If money is allowed to rule our elections and our political system, some candidate will win, but the People of Wisconsin will lose.”

In 1995 McCabe was a founding member of the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign , a nonpartisan watchdog group that specializes in tracking the money in state elections and works to make people matter more than money in politics. He led the group for 15 years as its director and during that time exposed money’s influence and called out wrongdoing by state officials, earning a reputation as a leading government whistle blower and one of the nation’s best political money trackers.

Before the Democracy Campaign came along, the only way to see who was donating to elected officials and candidates for office was to travel to the old state Elections Board office in Madison and personally examine mountains of paper reports. The Democracy Campaign entered all of the information on those reports into an electronic database and published it online, making it vastly easier to follow the money in Wisconsin politics. For its efforts under Mike’s leadership, the Democracy Campaign was named the Citizen Openness Advocate of the Year in 2012 by the Wisconsin Freedom of Information Council and the state chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists.

For more information on the campaign visit: GovernorBlueJeans.com.