On June 16, 2017 Donald Trump announced a step back to Cold War-style relations with Cuba, trying to bring an end to the progress in opening relations between our two countries, including increasing travel and contact between the peoples of the U.S. and Cuba.

This comes at the same time that Trump and the Republicans continue to support the most violent, far-right groups in Venezuela that are fighting to end 18 years of progressive government. The U.S. military has begun to play war games off the Venezuelan coast, risking a war that could spread across the whole region. And as the United States lectures other nations such as Cuba and Venezuela on "human rights," our government has failed to effectively guarantee human rights such as universal healthcare, and freedom from racist & xenophobic violence and police killings of Black and Brown people such as Sylville Smith and Philando Castile.

Co-hosted by the Milwaukee Coalition Against Trump, the Latin American Solidarity Committee, Wisconsin Bail Out The People Movement, End the Wars Committee of Peace Action- WI, Workers World Party and Freedom Road Socialist Organization.
