MADISON, Wis. — In light of the shocking revelations that Attorney General Jeff Sessions lied in writing and under oath to members of the Senate Judiciary Committee about his conversations with the Russian ambassador, One Wisconsin Now Executive Director Scot Ross suggested Wisconsin U.S. Sen. Ron Johnson needed to answer three questions about the scandal.

"These are simple questions for Sen. Ron Johnson to answer," said Ross. "They should be answered immediately."

1. As a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and as a member and now Chair of the Homeland Security Committee, have you personally met with any government officials from Russia, and if so, when?
2. Should Attorney General Jeff Sessions resign?
3. Why didn't you listen to the words of Coretta Scott King and reject Jeff Sessions's nomination as Attorney General in the first place?
