Chosen as Part of Youth Art Month

Rep. Ballweg would like to congratulate the following students and their teachers:

Marina Segura, Amanda Gimenez, Halie Schmid, Allison Brasch, Lydia Eberhardy & Megan Janzen – Teachers Angela Breunig and Lori Rademann – Berlin High School

Jordan Medina, Jennifer Henry, Hannah Schneider, Evelyn Mayer, Aziz Awad, Hailey Mitchell, John Polkinghorn, Anthony Juarez Burdue, & Addison Grimsled & Avori Romanelli – Teachers Kate Clausius and Julia Kaiser – Spring Hill Elementary and Middle School

Hayley Corkran, Joshua Schmidt, & Marissa Olson – Teacher Alicia M. Young – Ripon High School

“Congratulations to these talented students and their teachers,” said Ballweg. “Youth Art Month emphasizes the value of art education for all children and encourages communities to support quality art programs and safety. The Visual arts helps develop student's skills including problem solving, creativity, and communication, which employers are looking for. It goes to show that taking an art class in school can pay off down the road in more ways than one," stated Ballweg.
