MADISON - The following is a statement from Assembly Democratic Leader Peter Barca regarding the governor's budget address:

"We need a budget that works for every Wisconsinite—one that truly supports education, proposes a serious long-term solution to fix our flailing infrastructure, and will help create family-supporting jobs. What we don't need is a continuation of the last six years where the governor's priorities consistently put the state's wealthiest citizens over working families.

"The governor is putting forth budget proposals that are anemic attempts to address problems he has created, problems that have led to Wisconsinites feeling left behind by a rigged system and low approval ratings. Democrats will continue to push bold and creative ideas to revitalize our middle class, invest in local communities and public education, and ensure our roads and bridges are safe and reliable."
