MADISON - Today, Representative James Edming (R-Glen Flora) announced he will be holding his first budget listening session in the Village of Athens on Monday March 6, 2017. This listening session is an opportunity for residents of the 87th Assembly District to share their thoughts regarding the governor's 2017-19 State Budget proposal.

"Hearing my constituents' thoughts is an important part of the budget process," said Rep. Edming. "This feedback will allow me to better advocate for the priorities of the 87th Assembly District as the budget moves through the legislative process."

Additional listening sessions will be announced at a later date.
