“I am excited to continue with the committee’s public hearings and hear what the local people have to say on matters relating to revitalizing the urban areas of

Wisconsin,” said Chairman

Representative Bob Gannon (R- West Bend). “We invite anyone with an invested interest in the urban communities to attend this hearing and share with us the areas they believe the state could improve upon and how they could improve upon them. I also invite those from the cities around Beloit to come testify before the committee as well. We are looking to hear from as many people as possible so when we return to Madison we have a better understanding of the issues facing the cities throughout Wisconsin.”
