State Rep. Bob Gannon passed away last night, according to Assembly Majority Leader Jim Steineke. Gannon was 58.

Steineke said Gannon, R-West Bend, died from natural causes.

“I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of my friend and colleague, Representative Bob Gannon,” Steineke said. “During his time in the legislature, Bob’s proved to be a committed and effective part of our caucus, and his presence will be greatly missed. His extensive work with charities throughout the state has resulted in a better Wisconsin for everyone.”

Gannon was first elected to the Assembly in 2014.
