MADISON – Representative Rob Hutton (R-Brookfield) announced several listening sessions around the 13th Assembly district to allow for constituents to voice their opinion on Governor Walker’s proposed budget.

“The most important part of my job is communicating with constituents,” said Representative Hutton. “The Governor has presented his plan for the upcoming budget and now I look forward to hearing from my constituents in the 13th Assembly District about how they feel their hard earned tax dollars would best be spent.”

Representative Hutton will be holding listening sessions at the times and dates listed below.
