Amery, WI... Today, Rep. Adam Jarchow (R-Balsam Lake) met with the Dairy Business Association at Four Hands Holsteins in Amery, WI, where he accepted the Dairy Business Association's Legislative Excellence Award.

Rep. Jarchow commented, "It is an honor to receive this award at Four Hands Holsteins - an anchor in the family community in this area. Rick, Gwen, and the entire Dado family do an incredible job."

The Legislative Excellence Award is given to legislators who have been leaders on agricultural issues.

Rep. Jarchow continued, "Thanks to the Dairy Business Association for this award. I am proud to fight for their issues and those of the dairy industry that they represent. The dairy business has an immense impact on our state economy, and we have so many talented dairy farms and industry professionals throughout our district."
