Janesville, WI -Rep. Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) released the following statement after the announcement of the finalization of the sale of the former GM property to Commercial Development Corp.

“The announcement today is an important step forward for Janesville. The impact of GM leaving was felt by the Janesville community and the county as a whole. This is a huge boost in continuing to grow the economy in Janesville, Rock County and Southern Wisconsin. The significant infrastructure on the property combined with its strategic location and talented local workforce are tremendous assets for a variety of potential end users.”
