Madison –Rep. Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton), member of the Joint Committee on Finance (JFC), issued the following statement on the Assembly passage of the 2017-19 state budget:

“The Joint Committee on Finance considered input from the public, our legislative colleagues and numerous stakeholders to craft a final product that built upon the Governor’s proposed budget based and made it even better.

“I am proud to support a budget that invests significant dollars in K-12 education, holds the line on property taxes, and protects our most vulnerable citizens.”
