Sessions to Provide Opportunity for Public Input on Budget

Madison... Today, Rep. Rob Summerfield (R-Bloomer) announced the dates, times, and locations of his first round of in-district listening sessions. They will be held on February 20th at the Chippewa County Courthouse, Colfax Public Library, and Bloomer Town Hall throughout the day.

“This will be an opportunity for my constituents to address me directly with any questions or concerns they have regarding the Governor’s budget. As their State Representative, I want to hear their voice on these issues, and these listening sessions provide a great forum to do just that,” stated Summerfield.

Governor Walker is scheduled to unveil his budget at 4:00PM, Wednesday, February 8th.
