[Madison, WI]—Republicans in Wisconsin are building for the future. While Wisconsin Democrats are spending their weekend huddling in Madison, Republicans will be taking their message directly to voters statewide. Republicans organizing at field offices throughout the state will see volunteers making a push to take the Republican message directly to their communities.

“Wisconsin Republicans are building for the future,” said Alec Zimmerman, spokesman for the Republican Party of Wisconsin. “While Democrats fight for the future of their party, Republicans are organizing this weekend statewide to take our message directly to our friends and neighbors.”
