WASHINGTON—House Speaker Paul Ryan (R-WI) issued the following statement on the Financial CHOICE Act, which the House will vote on next week:

“This is a jobs bill for Main Street. It will rein in the overreach of Dodd-Frank that has allowed the big banks to get bigger while small businesses have been unable to get the loans they need to succeed. With the Financial CHOICE Act, the era of taxpayer-funded bailouts and too big to fail is over. Instead, we will put Main Street first to create more opportunities for people who work hard and do the right thing. I strongly support the CHOICE Act and thank Chairman Hensarling and the Financial Services Committee for their work on this initiative.”
