The Society of Industrial and Office Realtors' (SIOR's) Midwest Chapters Gather in Milwaukee for Regional Conference

WHAT: The Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) — the world's leading professional industrial and office real estate association — will be hosting its 2017 Midwest Regional Conference in Milwaukee at The Pfister Hotel from August 22 – August 23. Following a successful and insightful 2016 conference held in Michigan, this year's event – featuring the region's top commercial and industrial real estate experts and SIOR leadership – will be discussing mega developments and trends that are being seen in the current real estate market in the Midwest.

Some exciting topics will include:

- Overall advancements in the area's commercial real estate market
- The effects of positive economic development on the region's industrial sector
- Improvements and strides in the Milwaukee office market
- Positive absorption in the Wisconsin retail market

The Midwest Regional Conference is co-sponsored by the following SIOR Chapters, their members and candidates: Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.
