

Two amendments to PLA bill tabled

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 8, 2017

Two amendments to the PLA bill were tabled as discussion on project labor agreements began.

One amendment would have given preference to a contractor who is a minority business or a woman's business. It was tabled following an 18-13 vote.

Sen. Lena Taylor spoke on behalf of the amendment, urging her fellow senators that a vote for this amendment is "a vote that says we want to do better" for minorities and women in business.

The second amendment would have given preference to a contractor who is a veteran. It was voted down 19-13.
