WASHINGTON, D.C. – Congressman Sean Duffy (R-WI), Chairman of the House Financial Services Subcommittee on Housing & Insurance, has hired a new Committee Designee.

John Hair: Hair, 36, most recently worked at the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies. He previously worked at the Property Casualty Insurers Association of America, the Carrying Capacity Network, and at the Florida-based law firm Aylstock, Witkin & Sasser, PLC. Hair's father served the country for more than 21 years in the U.S. Army, and as a military brat Hair moved around a few times in his youth. Born in Louisiana, the family shortly thereafter moved to Korea for a year. He considers his home state Kentucky, having moved there by the time he was 4 years old. Just prior to high school his father was assigned to Germany, where he was able to travel much of Europe before going to college at the University of West Florida.

Hair begins in his role today.
