

U.S. Rep. Pocan town hall in Madison

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 15, 2017

Madison – U.S. Rep. Mark Pocan (WI-02) will hold a town hall this coming Saturday, Feb. 18, to discuss his work in Congress and field questions from attendees.

Pocan invites constituents to attend the town hall to share their ideas and concerns.

This is an opportunity for community members to have their voices heard and Rep. Pocan will field questions from those in attendance.

The current political situation in Washington D.C. has led to a major increase in calls and questions from constituents and Rep. Pocan believes it is more important than ever to be accessible to his constituents.

This event is free and open to the public, no RSVP is required.

Location:

South Central Federation of Labor, Room 201

1602 Park Street #228

Madison, WI 53715

When:

Saturday Feb. 18, 10:00 am – 11:00 am

Any media planning on attending please RSVP to above email or phone number, so we can provide you with any materials we have available.
