WASHINGTON – Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) issued the following statement after voting to confirm Rep. Tom Price (R-Ga.) as secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services:

“The process of dismantling Obamacare, undoing the damage it has inflicted and transitioning to something that actually works starts today. The secretary of Health and Human Services has a great deal of discretion to address the massive regulatory burdens of Obamacare, and I look forward to working with Secretary Price to develop a more affordable, accessible, and higher quality health care system.”
