Racine, Wis. — State Sen. Van Wanggaard, R-Racine, released the following statement today following his endorsement of Leah Vukmir for Wisconsin's U.S. Senator:

“A leopard doesn't change its spots, and neither will Leah Vukmir. Leah Vukmir is a proven, trusted, conservative problem solver. She is a tireless reformer, who isn't afraid to buck the system and upset a few apple carts to fight for what's right. We need Leah's tenacity and passion in Washington.

“All Republicans know that we are in a tough fight against Tammy Baldwin's extremist ultra-left agenda and her national liberal friends. But anyone who knows Leah Vukmir knows that she a fighter that has shown she can and will win.”

Van Wanggaard serves Wisconsin's 21st State Senate District, which encompasses most of Kenosha and Racine Counties, excluding the city of Kenosha, and most the city of Racine.
