

Vukmir raised nearly $250,000 in first three weeks of campaign

Posted on Wednesday, Oct 4, 2017

GOP state Sen. Leah Vukmir raised nearly $250,000 in a little more than three weeks after she formally got into the race for U.S. Senate, her campaign announced today.

Vukmir, R-Brookfield, officially declared Sept. 7, and the reporting period ended Sept. 30.

Reports for federal candidates covering July 1-Sept. 30 are due to the FEC later this month.

Fellow GOP candidate Kevin Nicholson and U.S. Sen. Tammy Baldwin, D-Madison, have not yet released fundraising numbers for the third quarter.
