MADISON – Dana Wachs, Democratic candidate for Governor, released the following statement on Governor Walker’s appointment of Dan Meyer as state Department of Natural Resource secretary.

“Wisconsin deserves a DNR Secretary that’s accountable to the people, protects the environment, and stands up for hunters and fishermen. Governor Walker has decided to again puts politics over people in his appointment of an insider to head the agency.”

“I strongly support a return to an independent DNR Secretary who will do what is best for Wisconsin.”
