

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction: Evers calls education leaders to 'dare greatly' for kids

Posted on Friday, Sep 22, 2017

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

State Superintendent Tony Evers delivered his State of Education address today before an audience of school superintendents and invited guests at the State Capitol in Madison. He used "The Man in the Arena" passage from President Teddy Roosevelt's 1910 "Citizenship in a Republic" speech as a backdrop to the call for leadership in these challenging times.

Links to excerpts from the address and the prepared text are below.

Excerpts

Full Address