

WisconsinEye: Public premiere of new opioid documentary

Posted on Tuesday, Sep 12, 2017

WisconsinEye invites you to an evening of education and hope. Please join us for the public premiere of the new opioid documentary, "Straight Forward: The Truth About Addiction." The film features honest, in-depth interviews with young Wisconsinites fighting to recover their lives and futures from addictions involving opioids. The evening will also feature a Community Forum Panel discussion, Community Resource Fair and a Drug Take Back Event.

When: Tuesday, September 19, 2017
6:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Where: Oconomowoc High School
641 E. Forest St., Oconomowoc

The Evening:

6:00-7:00 p.m. Community Resource Fair

7:00-7:50 p.m. "Straight Forward: The Truth About Addiction" Public Premiere

7:50-8:30 p.m. Community Forum Panel Discussion

Moderator: Stephanie Grady, Anchor, FOX6 News
Attorney General Brad Schimel, WI Dept. of Justice
Dr. Andy Anderson, Aurora Health Care
Dexter Lane, featured in "Straight Forward"
Lauri Badura, mother and prevention advocate