

WisDems: Is Kevin Nicholson still proud of his Steve Bannon endorsement?

Posted on Wednesday, Dec 6, 2017

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: Brad Bainum, bradb@wisdems.org

MADISON — Last night, out-of-state big money special interest puppet Kevin Nicholson's top out-of-state boss Steve Bannon was in Alabama campaigning for alleged serial sexual predator Roy Moore.

Bannon's Moore campaigning comes just two weeks after Nicholson was running digital ads calling on social media users to "join Steve Bannon...in support of political outsider Kevin Nicholson for U.S. Senate." And last week, Nicholson refused to reject the support of Illinois billionaire Dick Uihlein, who's funded Nicholson's campaign with $5,400 and given millions to super PACs backing him while also bankrolling a super PAC supporting Moore.

DPW spokesperson for the 2018 Senate race Brad Bainum issued the following statement on Nicholson's supporters continuing to support and campaign for Roy Moore, an accused sexual predator and pedophile:

"Kevin Nicholson continues to brag about his support from Steve Bannon, who's now actively headlining campaign rallies for an alleged serial sexual predator and pedophile. Nicholson must tell Wisconsinites why he sold out Wisconsin values in exchange for campaign cash from Roy Moore backers Steve Bannon and Dick Uihlein."