[Madison, WI]— While Madison Bureaucrat Tony Evers prepares to launch his campaign for governor this Wednesday, the Republican Party of Wisconsin is launching a digital ad campaign today, aimed at informing voters of Evers' failure to lead when children and parents needed him most.

"Madison bureaucrat Tony Evers failed to lead when parents and children needed him most," said Alec Zimmerman, spokesman for the Republican Party of Wisconsin. "While Governor Walker has fought for hard-working Wisconsin families and delivered results, Tony Evers won't take a stand - even when families are in danger. Wisconsin can't afford his weak leadership."

Evers Failed to Lead

- Evers allowed a middle-school teacher found guilty of spreading pornographic material at school to keep teaching students.
- Evers' Department has a long history of allowing teachers with "immoral conduct" issues to continue teaching students.
