[Madison, WI] — The Republican Party of Wisconsin is launching its latest billboard in a campaign to highlight Governor Scott Walker's reforms to cut taxes today - this time in Green Bay. The campaign comes as Republicans statewide are pushing their record of fighting for hard-working Wisconsin families. By 2018, Wisconsin taxpayers will have seen over $8 billion in total tax relief since the governor took office.

"Families are seeing real results, thanks to the leadership of Governor Walker and Republicans in Wisconsin," said Mark Morgan, Executive Director for the Republican Party of Wisconsin. "Wisconsin taxpayers are back in charge, and Governor Walker is holding government accountable while keeping property taxes low."

The billboard campaign has included various markets across Wisconsin and started in La Crosse. See the billboard itself at the Mason Street Bridge in downtown Green Bay, or see an example of it online here.

Governor Walker and Republicans even eliminated the entire state portion of the property tax - all Wisconsin taxpayers will see a 100% reduction on the state portion of their property taxes.

By the end of 2018, Wisconsin taxpayers will see a total of $8 billion in tax relief since Governor Walker took office.

Thanks to the leadership of Governor Scott Walker, property taxes this year will be lower than they were in 2010.
