Madison, Wisconsin—Today, the state Legislature’s Joint Finance Committee announced support of a plan to completely eliminate the state property tax. While Democrats have no agenda for hard-working Wisconsin taxpayers, Wisconsin Republicans are leading the charge to put them first.

“Today’s announcement is historic for Wisconsin, and we applaud Governor Walker and Republican leaders for their continued stand for taxpayers,” said Mark Morgan, Executive Director of the Republican Party of Wisconsin. “While Democrats are offering nothing but the same failed policies of yesterday, Governor Walker and Republican leaders in the Legislature are fighting to put taxpayers first and let hard-working Wisconsin families keep more of their own money.”
