

WisGOP: State Superintendent Evers allowed a teacher to remain in the classroom after making crude comments about children and sexual acts

Posted on Thursday, Nov 2, 2017

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: Alec Zimmerman
\(608\) 257-4765257-4765)

Madison, Wisconsin — Madison Bureaucrat Tony Evers drew criticism earlier this year over allowing a teacher to remain in the classroom after a district investigation shockingly found he was viewing and distributing pornography at school. Now, new revelations from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel show that the teacher also made crude remarks about the school's students committing sexual acts - along with disturbing comments on the physical appearance of young female students. Despite knowing these graphic details, Evers refused to act and allowed Harris to continue teaching. Harris remains in the classroom today and children remain in danger.

Read the full story from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel here